VICTORIA UNIVERSITY

www.vu.edu.au

Bachelor of Youth Work

Our Youth Work degree is the largest in Australia and is delivered by experts in the field. You'll receive expert guidance from specialist youth sociologists and experienced workers.

During your degree, you'll receive practical experience in various areas of youth work, through industry-based learning and professional development. You'll complete 200 hours of fieldwork placement throughout the academic year.

Bachelor of Youth Work / Bachelor of Sport Management

The Bachelor of Youth Work / Bachelor of Sport Management expands your career options in youth work and sport management.

You'll develop practical management and leadership skills for both areas, and become an expert in roles where sport and youth work meet.

Youth work encourages young people's personal and social development, giving them a voice in their communities and society. One of the key tools in this work is recreation and adventure programs.

Bachelor of Youth Work and Criminal Justice

This degree will prepare you to work in high-demand areas where youth work overlaps with criminal-justice work.

Your knowledge of the justice system will allow you to take on roles supporting young people in vulnerable communities, where the chances of offending or reoffending are high.

With the skills that you learn during your degree, you'll be able to help young people reconnect with their community and escape the cycle of criminal activity and punishment.
